ARROZ A LA MARINERA 349

The ultimate seafood indulgence!

Chef Eligio's Arroz a la Marinera certainly brings the taste of the Ocean in the fullest. It is light, refreshing, not salty, yet flavorful and healthy!

For a good arroz a la Marinera, the rice should be thoroughly cooked with each grain plump and perfectly separated.

The difference between Paella & Arroz a la Marinera?

Compared to our Mexican Seafood Paella, Arroz a la Marinera is prepared with a heavier shrimp stock and tomato based where Mexican Seafood Paella is bell pepper based.
